Library News

Looking for a new author? Try Lynn Blackburn and her Dive Team Investigations. In Too Deep, book 2 of the series, has the dive team recovering a body of a dead accountant from a submerged car. They also find an encrypted laptop and try to recover the files on it but someone is willing to do whatever it takes to silence anyone who threatens to reveal their secrets. A real page turner.

Bible Readings for March 24

Isaiah 55:1-9

Psalms 63:1-8

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

Luke 13:1-9

Check out the new "Creation Care" information on the display boards on the south wall of the Hall. You can read the latest information & sign up for the activities ahead! Work Party planned for:

St. Mark's Semi-Annual Metal Recycling Event on Saturday, March 30

Guidelines:

- Christmas Lights – strings can be donated “as is”
- our primary aim is to keep metal out of the landfill, not to take away from existing opportunities and programs
- please put all acceptable metal in your blue bin, i.e. jar lids, mason rings, tin cans, foil tart shells, etc
- We are happy to receive these only if your collection doesn't accept them
- Please DO NOT LEAVE ON SITE except by arrangement with Anne Schreck close to the March or November events
