St Marks Syrian Refugees

They Arrive Friday, July 5, 2019
This long awaited event is happening!

The Syrian Refugee Project has coordinators for Furnishings and Kitchenware and all the other things our Khaldoun Family will need to start their new life in Canada.

We will be supporting them for the next year so please think about what help you can provide.

Brenda Horner is the financial donations coordinator for those wishing to start or increase a pledge, or people can add to their envelope donations under a "Syrian Family" line item on their envelope. People may also use the Electronic Donation Station in the Narthex.

Movie Night

Have you checked the movies lately? There are some new titles.

Unbroken based on a true story, it tells of how Louis Zamperini finds peace and forgiveness after being a prisoner of war. Jimmy is based on the Robert Whitlow novel, and is an extraordinary tale of growing up even when you are "special". (Dove Rated)

Courageous Love has Alex working undercover, trying to save his company, when he falls in love with the employee he came to investigate. (Dove Rated)

Easter Extravaganza Update: Thank you to the many youth and adult volunteers who helped make St. Mark's first Easter Extravaganza a success! The carnival-themed family event welcomed approximately 200 people from our community to enjoy a gigantic bouncy castle, carnival toss games, face painting, balloon pit, toddler crawl zone and art station. Over 100 children received a goodie bag with Easter treats and a Gospel tract.
