Refugee Sponsorship Ministry Update Syrian Family: We are delighted to share that Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) has approved our Sponsorship Documents for both Syrian applicants, Leeda and May. The process now moves on to the overseas stage of approval of the refugees' applications for permanent residence, including medical examinations and interviews. Reem reports that Leeda, her husband Samir's sister, and May, their mother are encouraged by this news.

Afghan Family: We are pleased to share that IRCC has also approved our Sponsorship Documents for the Afghan refugee family Bibi, Mohammad and Fatima. The process now moves on to the overseas stage of approval of the family's application for permanent residence, including medical examinations and interviews. Bibi's brother, Ali, reports that this news has brought the family some hope.

What Can We Do As We Wait? Pray The Refugee Applicants and their extended family members in Canada are requesting that we continue to hold them in our hearts and prayers for their safety, health and well-being while they wait. Let us pray that both families will soon be safely re-united with their family members here. Each of us can be a vessel of God's Hope by taking time each day for a breath prayer. Breathe in God's Hope and breathe out Hope to enfold Leeda, May, Bibi, Mohammad and Fatima. Repeat this breath prayer slowly and mindfully for each individual.

Consider a Donation Towards Our Sponsorship Costs We have raised $44,000 of the $50,000 needed to sponsor the Afghan family. Of that $44,000, a total of $37,000 has been received to date, with the remaining funds being pledged over a given time period. We are now appealing to parishioners and their friends to help us raise the remaining $6,000 needed to support the Afghan refugee family throughout the first year of their life in Canada. Together, we can be a small sign of hope in a world desperately needing it. With gratitude for your support, Janet Scott, Patrick Aiken and Brenda Horner

+++++ PRAYER CORNER – November 19 +++++

Steadfast in Hope

Eugene Peterson, in his introduction to Paul's letters to the Thessalonians in "The Message" writes: "From the day Jesus ascended into heaven, his followers have lived in expectancy of his return. He told them he was coming back. They believed he was coming back. ... For Christians, it is the most important thing to know and believe about the future.”

The second coming is a source of hope when everything around us seems to say there is no hope - nothing ever changes – evil is pervasive. As we approach the seasons of Advent and Christmas it seems good to pray in such a way that the eyes of our hearts are open to fully and deeply receiving Jesus’ promise. The hope, peace, love and joy that were heralded on the first Christmas will come in fullness one day. What a promise! What a hope! What good news to share!

Suggested Daily Prayer:

Awaken me, Lord. Open the eyes of my heart to your promise to return. Grow my faith in that promise. Inspire and guide me to live prepared for that day. May my life be a witness to you and all your promises. May it fill others with hope and encourage them to walk with you in joyful expectation of your return.

Suggested Lectio Divina:

Set aside 15 to 20 minutes to read and reflect on 1 Thessalonians 5

Begin with a prayer of gratitude and request for guidance. (Example: Thank you, O God for Holy Scripture. I believe its words have the power of The Holy Spirit in them. As I read, please quicken my spirit to the truths that will help me grow in faith and live in accordance with your will.)

Read the passage and take note of the words and/or phrases to which you have a strong attraction or aversion – both places are holy ground.

Read the passage a second time asking God to clarify and/or confirm the sense you had on first reading.

Read the passage a third time with these questions in mind:

“What is God inviting me to?”

“In what way might God be calling me to repent?”

(Remember forgiveness is assured. Repentance is a gift that helps us grow in Christlikeness.)

With gratitude, ask The Holy Spirit to seal the gift you have received in your soul.
